Why send someone

Latest and greatest in software

Latest and greatest on software architecture, AI in practice, platform engineering, security, programming languages, agile and leadership.

Speakers who built the tools

Speaking at GOTO is by invitation only. The program committee picks people with hands-on experience. Past stages include Martin Fowler, Anders Hejlsberg, Kent Beck Troy Hunt and more.

Time with the experts

Around 75% of speakers stay all week, so attendees can ask about their own systems over lunch.

Every talk, right away

Attendees get every recording after the conference.

The 2027 program is announced from January. Booking before it is why Blind bird is the lowest price.
